

SUN CITY RV CLUB, LLC
WAGON MASTER GUIDELINES &
CARAVAN / RALLY REGULATIONS

Wagonmaster has the responsibility of planning all phases of a caravan or rally. The difference between a caravan and a rally is: A RALLY is where the participants meet at a given destination point. A CARAVAN is where all participants leave from a specific area in groups utilizing group leaders and tail gunners.

Wagonmaster responsibilities involve the following, if applicable:

1. Determine the Caravan or Rally's final Destination.
2. How many Members express interest?
3. Date of departure and duration of Caravan/Rally.
4. Locate RV Camp-Ground(s) and Costs involved.
5. Plan meals for the Caravan/Rally.
6. Plan side trips and/or events.
7. Estimate all costs and charges. (Members pay upon sign-up).
8. Have Caravan application & Disclaimer form, Emergency Medical Information form and check from all participants.
9. Ensure that the Wagonmaster & last tail-gunner receive First Aid Kits.
10. Look for volunteers to assist whenever possible.
11. Tail gunners must have a Cell Phone for road service or emergency calls.
12. Tail gunners must have medical forms for his group and Orange Safety Vests prior to departure.
13. Prepare itinerary of the trip for each RV.
14. No guests under 18 years of age.
15. Beer, wine or liquor will not be purchased with Club fees.
16. All personnel checks must be made out to "Sun City RV Club, LLC".
17. All Caravan members must have a current Recreation Card and Club membership card.
